ASKING PRICE £290,000

Built in 1880, this quirky three-bedroom terrace property spans an impressive 1,687 square feet, offering a perfect blend of historical charm and modern functionality in a sought-after location. Whether you're a growing family or someone in search of a distinctive living space, this home offers all the space, style, and charm you need.

Stepping into the entrance hall, you'll be greeted by a home full of character and potential. The ground floor features two well proportioned reception rooms. The cosy lounge is ideal for unwinding, while the spacious dining room is perfect for entertaining or enjoying family meals. You will also find a kitchen with plenty of cupboard space, with space for a dishwasher and a 'range' style cooker.

A generous cellar adds valuable storage space, ensuring your home remains clutter-free and organized. Upstairs, the landing leads to three spacious double bedrooms, each one brimming with charm. The master bedroom is a standout, complete with a private balcony, making it a perfect spot to relax and enjoy the fresh air. The en-suite bathroom in the master bedroom offers a touch of luxury, while a separate shower room provides added convenience for busy mornings.

Outside, the property features a cosy garden space, easily accessible from the kitchen. To the front, off-road parking offers practicality and ease of access.
